

Assistant Professor in Middle Level Education

Illinois State University – Normal/Bloomington
School of Teaching and Learning

Illinois State University, School of Teaching and Learning, is pleased to announce a nine-month, tenure-track position in the middle level education program. The appointment will commence on August 17, 2017. The primary assignment will be teaching undergraduate middle level education courses.

Required Qualifications:

- Terminal degree or ABD in a relevant field with a completion date prior to faculty appointment
- Minimum of 3 years teaching experience in 5th through 8th grades
- Expertise in at least one of the following areas: literacy, science, social studies, math, technology, school library media, bilingual/bicultural, or ESL

Salary: Salary is competitive and will depend upon qualifications and experience.

The School:

The School of Teaching and Learning faculty is a vibrant group of diverse, high-quality scholars and educators who are committed to innovative pedagogies and developing leadership in education. The University has been developing teachers both within the state of Illinois as well as outside the state for over 150 years. University lab schools and local school partnerships offer opportunities for authentic and connected classroom experiences to enhance preparation of pre-service teachers. The faculty of the School of Teaching and Learning is committed to continuing its leadership at the state, national and international levels. The School has 38 full-time tenure-track faculty in teacher education programs at the undergraduate, masters, and doctoral levels who work collaboratively with colleagues in four other Colleges on campus, public schools, and communities.

The University Community:

Illinois State University is a doctoral-granting institution with an enrollment of approximately 20,150 students. Illinois State University is Illinois' first public university, founded in 1857 to educate the state's teachers. The University is located in Normal/Bloomington, a community of over 100,000, located within three hours of Chicago, St. Louis, and Indianapolis.

Application Process:

Initial review of applications will begin December 15, 2016, and continue until the position is filled. To assure full consideration, please attach an online faculty application along with a cover letter, a list of three references (specifically, names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses), and a curriculum vitae at www.illinoisState.edu/jobs by December 15, 2016.

Illinois State University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Minority/Female/Disability/Veteran.

Supplemental Questions:

- Do you have experience working in collaborative partnerships with public school professionals?
- Do you have experience teaching and supervising teacher candidates preparing to teach in 5th through 8th grades?
- Do you have experience working in school libraries?
- Do you have experience using technology for educational purposes?